FESTIVE TERMS & CONDITIONS

THE CALEDONIAN EDINBURGH

For Christmas Day dining and the Hogmanay Ball, 100% of the total booking will be paid in full, including a service charge of 12.5%, at the time of your booking confirmation. All dining bookings can be cancelled free of penalty until November 30th 2025. For group inquiries and afternoon tea reservations, separate terms and conditions apply.

All prices are inclusive of VAT at the current rate. All offers are subject to availability. Please note, a service charge is not applicable for Hogmanay Ball reservations. Please note, all provisional bookings prior to December 1st will be released after 7 days without further notification.

Provisional bookings after December 1st will be released after 3 days. From December 1st, all payments received, including deposits, are nonrefundable and non-transferable. Should your party size decrease in numbers, payments cannot be offset against food, beverage or accommodation.

We endeavour to accommodate all special dietary requests and allergies where possible. Please advise of any requests at the time of your booking. If the final amount is not settled in advance (see terms in clause above) the hotel reserves the right to cancel the booking.

In the unlikely event that the hotel is obliged to cancel the function for any reason, all balances will be refunded or an alternative date or location will be offered, without liability to the hotel. We recommend that all wine for parties above 10 persons be pre-ordered to avoid any delays on the evening.

The hotel can accept no responsibility or liability whatsoever for guests' personal property. As a licenced premise, we also reserve the right to refuse entrance at the Manager's discretion.
